

Kingston Nursing Research Conference

Thursday March 12, 2020

0800 to 1600

Donald Gordon Conference Centre
421 Union Street, Kingston, Ontario

Join us for the Kingston Nursing Research Conference. Don't miss this opportunity to network and connect with nursing colleagues and learn more about the work they are doing locally!

Keynote Speakers:

Alex Hamilton (RN BScN MSc MBI)
"Machine Learning for Health:
The Next Maker Movement and
Why Nurses Need To Be in the Driver's Seat."

Mary Smith (PhD MScN NP-PHC)
"Indigenous Methodologies:
Learning Together with Community."

Willi Kirenko (MN NP-PHC-Adult)
"Medical Assistance in Dying
(MAiD): Nursing Roles in this
End-of-Life Option."

Details and registration: <http://bit.do/KNRC2020>

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION DEADLINE—February 13, 2020

FINAL REGISTRATION – March 4, 2020

NOTE: Program changes are unlikely; however, the organizing committee reserves the right to make changes to the program in the event of unforeseen circumstances.